

Communities, Sport and Recreation

2018-19 Sport and Recreation Grant Programs

Communities, Sport and Recreation provides funding to increase opportunities for participation in sport and active recreation in Tasmania, and to assist the ongoing development of Tasmania's sport and recreation sector.

'Sport' is defined as:

A human activity involving physical exertion and skill as the primary focus of the activity, with elements of competition where rules and patterns of behaviour governing the activity exist formally through organisations and is generally accepted as a sport.

'Active Recreation' is defined as:

Active recreation activities are those engaged in for the purpose of relaxation, health and wellbeing or enjoyment with the primary activity requiring physical exertion, and the primary focus on human activity.

All applicants are advised to contact Communities, Sport and Recreation to discuss their application prior to submission

2018-19 Sport and Recreation Grant Programs

Levelling the Playing Field Grants Program

The Levelling the Playing Field Grants Program offers grants of between $15,000 and $1 million to sporting organisations and local government, to upgrade sports facilities for girls and women.

Eligible projects include the provision of appropriate change rooms, lockers, toilets, shower facilities and amenities for female players, officials, coaches and volunteers.

Priority will be given to:

- facilities used for football (AFL) and cricket; and
- projects where matching funding is provided by the facility owner; and
- projects with co-funding from the relevant sport (where they are not the facility owner).

The program will be administered over two stages:

- Stage 1: expression of interest
- Stage 2: full application process for selected projects.

There is one funding round for the 2018-19 Levelling the Playing Field Grants Program.
