

#488

Page 1: Your Details (Optional)

Q1 Full Name

Yellow Vest Tasmania

Page 3: Overview of Local Government

Q6 What do you think councils will be responsible for in the future?

Their will be no councils

Q7 What council activities should be driven or determined by communities?

All of them. Council should make no decision for the people. Especially without consulting the people.

Q8 Given the varying sizes of councils, what consideration should be given to costs of services and the councils' capacity to deliver these?

Respondent skipped this question

Page 4: Council Governance and Powers

Q9 What is vital to good governance in local government?

Respondent skipped this question

Q10 What aspects of good governance should be prescribed in a legislative framework?

Respondent skipped this question

Q11 What statutory powers do councils need to deliver the services that communities require, or expect to receive, from councils now and into the future?

Respondent skipped this question

Q12 How are the strategic decisions of councils best made?

Respondent skipped this question

Q13 What mechanisms best support strategic, operational and technical decisions and actions?

Respondent skipped this question

Page 5: Democracy and Engagement

Q14 What is the best way to engage Tasmanians in voting for local government?

Respondent skipped this question

Q15 Who should be allowed to participate in local government elections?

Respondent skipped this question

Q16 How can local government attract skilled, diverse and representative electoral candidates?

Respondent skipped this question

Q17 What should be required of candidates in local government elections before, during and after elections?

Respondent skipped this question

Q18 What decisions should councils continue to be able to make during an election period?

Respondent skipped this question

Q19 In what ways should councillors engage with, and represent, communities in the digital age?

Respondent skipped this question

Q20 On what matters should councils engage with communities?

Respondent skipped this question

Q21 How can community engagement be strengthened and measured?

Respondent skipped this question

Page 6: Council Revenue and Expenditure

Q22 How can councils ensure transparency in funding decisions; both how it is raised and spent?

Respondent skipped this question

Q23 How can councils determine how best to raise revenue for specific purposes?

Respondent skipped this question

Q24 How should councils engage communities when raising revenue?

Respondent skipped this question

Q25 How should councils determine the services they deliver to their communities in exchange for rates and charges?

Respondent skipped this question

Q26 How should councils decide where to make trade-offs (more or less rates vs more or less services)?

Respondent skipped this question

Page 7: Performance Transparency and Accountability

Q27 How can the right balance between autonomy and accountability be delivered?

Respondent skipped this question

Q28 Who should have oversight and regulation of councils' performance and how should it occur?

Respondent skipped this question

Q29 What mechanisms should there be to respond or intervene when a council is not performing as required?

Respondent skipped this question

Q30 What information should councils make available to the public and how should they be able to access it?

Respondent skipped this question

Q31 What information would be useful to councils to drive performance improvements?

Respondent skipped this question

Page 8: Other Matters

Q32 What is one thing you would change about the current local government legislative framework, and why?

Respondent skipped this question
