Reform #7: Mayoral Election

Answered: 481

7A: Current process for electing mayors should be retained, but a higher nomination fee should be charged (see Reform Direction 13).

7B: Voters will popularly elect the mayor at the same time as council elections are held. A successfully elected mayor will automatically be elected as councillor, removing the requirement to be concurrently elected as councillor.

7C: Voters should popularly elect the mayor, with the candidate who is elected first from the ballot being automatically elected as mayor.

7D: All candidates for councillor stand for popular election. Council would then vote to elect the mayor 'around the table'.

Reform #48: The power to create Regional Councils should be introduced. Regional Councils would be supported by a general manager and staff, while the local councils would be serviced by one administrative organisation. The Regional Council would be responsible for region-wide planning and service delivery. The local councils would retain some local decisions and remain the primary advocates for their communities.

Membership of Regional Councils would include the mayors of the individual local councils, and any other members determined by those councils.
