

- 1. A copy of all information relating to the recruitment process for the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer of the Tasmanian Health Service (THS). Specifically a copy of all information relating to all print and online advertisements for the position and the number of times, including dates the position was advertised between June 2014 to current.*

Please find attached a copy of the advertisement which appeared in the following newspapers on Saturday 2 May 2015:

- The Weekend Australian,
- The Advocate
- The Mercury
- The Examiner

Please note that the advertisement jointly advertised the positions of Chief Executive Officer, THS and Secretary, Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS).

- 1. A copy of all information relating to the total cost of advertising the position from June 2014 to date.*

As documented in point (1), the position of Chief Executive Officer, THS was jointly advertised with the position of Secretary, DHHS. The cost of newspaper advertising for both these positions was $19,979.26 (inclusive of GST).

- 2. A copy of all information relating to the total cost of all recruitment agency involvement from June 2014 to date.*

The recruitment agency appointed to provide executive search services for the position of Chief Executive Officer, THS was also appointed to provide executive search services for the position of Secretary, DHHS. The total cost of all recruitment agency involvement from June 2014 to date for both positions is $82,376.65 (inclusive of GST). This cost includes advertising of position, travel and accommodation expenses, and executive search fees.

- 3. A copy of all information relating to the total number of applications, the total number of people interviewed and the dates of the interviews from June 2014 to date.*

I advise that through the press advertisements, together with targeted research and development of a candidate pool, the recruitment agency NGS Global, together with local firm Searson Buck identified and interviewed 16 potential candidates for the position of Chief Executive Officer, THS. Of those 16 candidates, the selection panel interviewed four for the role on 25 September 2015.

- 4. A copy of all information specifically relating to the members of the selection panel, including names and professional background.*

The members of the selection panel for this position are:

- John Ramsay, Chair, Governing Council, Tasmania Health Service (Panel Chair)
- Professor John Burgess, Medical Specialist, Tasmania Health Service
- Ms Kathrine Morgan-Wicks, Deputy Secretary Budget and Finance Division, Department of Treasury and Finance TAS
- Mr Alan Lilly, Chief Executive, Eastern Health (Victoria)
- Professor Tom Marwick, Director, Menzies Institute for Medical Research, University of Tasmania