TasTAFE, Drysdale House
59 Collins Street, Hobart
Tuesday, 14 July 2015
6.00pm

Derrick Casey and Nick Gurner are in Tasmania to explore an exciting new partnership with TasTAFE and the State Government to offer high-level training in the cookery area.

Please contact Wendy Bartlett on 6777 2496 or email: wendy.bartlett@tastafe.tas.edu.au by Friday, 10 July to RSVP for this event.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Gents,

This was sent to one of my associates today

As you have been introduced as a partner in this, I will also assume you do not need to be informed on what Le Cordon Bleu do, and don't do. Best of luck.

Cheers,
Tony

Dear Ben,

Firstly apologies for not getting back to you from our meeting in late August.

President Cointreau is visiting Australia and plans to be in Hobart for the full day as above arriving the previous evening and departing on the Saturday afternoon.

He is keen to pursue the discussions with TAFE TAS and I will putting forward a proposal and discussion points to TAFE TAS.

Is there a possibility of a short meeting with the Premier by way of introduction of Le Cordon Bleu by the man who built the company into a respected worldwide network.

I will provide a background paper if that is of assistance in arranging a meeting.

I can call to discuss if you wish or by all means call me on [REDACTED]

Warm Regards

Hi

Please find attached an Event/Meeting Brief for your approval by Noon on Wednesday 16 December 2015

Once approved, please email the brief back to the DLOs via premier.correspondence@dpac.tas.gov.au who will then update the brief in Trim and forward an email to the PO Diary Team advising that the Brief is approved and ready for the Premier.

Please note approved briefs are required to be in the Premiers daily folder two full working days prior to the event/meeting.

If you are unable to meet this timeframe, please let the DLOs know urgently and they will reassign approval to another adviser.
