

15 May 2024

First meeting of the Aboriginal Advisory Group for 2024

The Aboriginal Advisory Group continues to progress the Truth-telling and Treaty agenda for Tasmanian Aboriginal people and held its first meeting for 2024 in Launceston on 10 May. The Acknowledgement of Country was provided by the meeting's Chair, Mr Rodney Dillon.

The Minister for Aboriginal Affairs, Roger Jaensch MP, attended the meeting to thank the Aboriginal Advisory Group and to request a meeting in the very near future. The Minister advised that the Government remains committed to Truth-telling and Treaty and will continue to be guided by the Aboriginal Advisory Group.

The Aboriginal Advisory Group received a message from tuylupa tunapri, respectfully declining the Group's invitation to meet. The Aboriginal Advisory Group remains open to working with tuylupa tunapri.

Contact: AboriginalAdvisoryGroup@dpac.tas.gov.au