Second meeting of the Aboriginal Advisory Group for 2024

The Aboriginal Advisory Group held its eighth meeting on 12 July 2024 to progress the Truth-telling and Treaty agenda for Tasmanian Aboriginal people. The Acknowledgement of Country was provided by the meeting's Chair, Mr David Gough.

The Minister for Aboriginal Affairs, Roger Jaensch MP, attended the first session of the meeting.

The Aboriginal Advisory Group agreed to progress its proposal to establish an identified Aboriginal secretariat position, independent from Government, to assist their work. The Aboriginal Advisory Group also discussed how a Commission for Truth-telling and Treaty could guide the Government on the next steps.

The Aboriginal Advisory Group remains open to working with tuylupa tunapri.
