

From: Jenny Cambers-Smith
Sent on: Sunday, August 20, 2023 10:41:34 PM
To: Disability Inclusion Bill DisabilityInclusionBill@dpac.tas.gov.au
Subject: Submission

Hi there

One of the biggest ways disabled people are disadvantaged, is via Tasmanians dependence on the private car. According to TasCoSS, the people most likely to not own a car are the disabled, unemployed and students.

Tasmania needs an integrated transport solution that uses fixed route buses, on-demand transport, ferries, active transport, car-pooling/ sharing, easy route-planning and open loop ticketing. All public transport must be accessible to the disabled.

Regards
Jenny Cambers-Smith
Huon Valley Councillor