Thanks Ned for that!

I'm trying to see this as an opportunity to restructure a bit to suit my workload needs. Just so I'm clear, moving forward I will have an allocation of 1.5 x $90k plus the extra 0.5 and I will have $125k

Cheers
Kristie

Hi Kristie

Thanks for your time this morning and for explaining your staffing movements.

With the new parliament, increased size and workflow we have been looking at staffing arrangements to allow members the flexibility and resources they need to best represent their constituents.

Further, in the coming weeks, DPAC will be setting up a dedicated HR unit to support crossbench members and their staff.

The new dedicated HR unit will also provide a level of independence that hasn't been present previously.

With departing your office, you will have the capacity for 1.5x this to use at your discretion going forward under the new arrangements.

Feel free to give me a call if you have any queries.

Thanks

Ned
